The scouts provide children with skills and knowledge that they can benefit from throughout their lives and we teach them to take responsibility for themselves and for others.

YWCA–YMCA Guides and Scouts of Norway offer leisure activities affiliated with the International Scout movement. There are 11,000 members in Norway. Worldwide, there are around 40 million scouts.

Children learn, play and become familiar with nature in all-year-round meetings. We teach orienteering, first aid, knowledge of nature, knots, cooking and much more! Sometimes we take part in trips or camps with many other scouts. Trips are exciting as the children learn so much!

Many of today's executives started their management training in the scouts. What we teach you will provide skills that are valued in working life and society at large. You will also make good friends, build networks and gain experiences for life!

EVERYONE CAN BE A SCOUT!

Scout work is run by local YWCA–YMCA scout groups throughout Norway. We have something for everyone, and use the following age division:

FAMILIESPEIDING

> 0 to school start

For the whole family, focusing on play and learning.

OPPDAGERE

> 1st–2nd year

Games and discovery expeditions in the neighbourhood.

STIFINNERE

> 3rd–4th year

Exploring nature through play and learning.

VANDRERE

> 5th–10th year

Expanding your horizons and developing yourself through cooperation and friendship. At the youth level there is heightened focus on leadership training.

ROVERE

> from conclusion of 10th year up to and including 25 years of age

Time for challenging experiences and interaction in a broader context: locally, nationally and internationally.

LEDERE

> We offer leadership development for adults.

All types of leaders are welcome: Junior, senior, experienced, new, mum leaders, dad leaders, and leaders without a scout background.

Scout work is undertaken by volunteers. Parents are welcome to join in!

The Christian faith is an important part of scout work, although everyone is welcome.

We focus on developing positive communities characterised by trust, security and good values. You are welcome to join us!
